Notable features:

All of these belong to the "second generation" of commercial building on Baltimore Street. Two houses have been united behind the new front at 945-947; something of the character of the original corner house can be seen in the Schroeder Street elevation.

Rehabilitation of these buildings should be possible with a minimum of change. Several have been recently painted. The shop fronts could be improved by a designed program of graphics.

Environmental context:

(See comment for 901 W. Baltimore Street.)
